

PSALM 91

Brenda Steve dwells in the shelter of the Most High and Brenda Steve abides in the shadow of the Almighty. Brenda Steve says to the Lord, “My Refuge and My Fortress, My God, in whom I trust!” For it is God who delivers Brenda Steve from the snare of the trapper and from the deadly pestilence [fatal, infectious disease]. God will cover Brenda Steve with His pinions, and under His wings Brenda Steve may seek refuge; God’s faithfulness is a shield and bulwark.

Brenda Steve will not be afraid of the terror by night, or of the arrow that flies by day; of the pestilence that stalks in darkness, or of the destruction that lays waste at noon. One thousand may fall at Brenda Steve’s side, and ten thousand at her right hand; but it shall not approach Brenda Steve. Brenda Steve will only look on with her eyes, and see the recompense of the wicked. For Brenda Steve has made the Lord, her Refuge, even the Most High, her dwelling place.

No evil will befall Brenda Steve, nor will any plague come near Brenda Steve’s tent.

For He will give His angels charge concerning Brenda Steve to guard Brenda Steve in all her ways. They will bear Brenda Steve up in their hands, lest Brenda Steve strike her foot against a stone. Brenda Steve will tread upon the lion and cobra, the young lion and the serpent she will trample down.

“Because Brenda Steve has loved Me [God said], therefore I will deliver her; I will set Brenda Steve securely on high, because Brenda Steve has known My name. Brenda Steve will call on Me, and I will answer Brenda Steve. I will be with Brenda Steve in troubles; I will rescue Brenda Steve and honor Brenda Steve. With a long life I will satisfy Brenda Steve, and let her behold My salvation.”
